

TEMPORARY SIGN PERMIT GUIDELINES

- Each parcel zoned commercial or industrial is allowed one 24 square foot banner.
- Each parcel zoned commercial, industrial, or residential is allowed 3 flags without a permit.
- Temporary sign permits apply to the parcel where the business applicant is located and may be obtained for parcels zoned recreational, commercial, or industrial.
- Permits are purchased by individual businesses.
- During the permitted period, you may place flags, pennants, banners, portable signs, streamers, balloons, sandwich board signs, and other similar devices on the parcel property. ►► No signage may be placed in the County rights-of-way or off site. ◀◀
- Temporary sign permits can be obtained through Hernando County Code Enforcement for a fee of $30 each.
- Temporary sign permits can be issued for up to 60 days per calendar year, per parcel, to any occupant.
- The 60 days allowed can be divided up into 6 different permits for any number of days, by any occupant, as long as the total does not exceed 60 days per calendar year.
- After the 60 days have been permitted, additional events can be permitted once for each occupant, for an additional 15 day period per calendar year.
- After the 60 days have been permitted, a new business can apply for an additional 21-day permit within 60 days of their opening to the general public; otherwise, they can use any part of the 60 days that are still available.
- If the applicant is not the registered owner or owner's agent, a separate written authorization from the owner or owner's agent must accompany the permit application.
